

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY 25 JULY

WEDNESDAY 25 JULY

0800	Registration opens
0900	PLENARY SESSION Room 105/106 Welcome to Country: Aunty Di Kerr, Wurundjeri Tribe Conference opening: Anne Hollonds, Director, Australian Institute of Family Studies
0930	MINISTERIAL ADDRESS The Hon. Dr David Gillespie MP, Assistant Minister for Children and Families
1000	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Families: What, so what, now what? Nora Spinks, CEO, Vanier Institute of the Family, Canada

1100 Morning tea

	Breakout session 1	Breakout session 2	Breakout session 3	Breakout session 4	Breakout session 5	Breakout session 6	Breakout session 7	Breakout session 8
	Room 101	Room 103	Room 105/106	Room 107	Room 102	Room 104	Room 108	Room 110
	Parenting and early education	SYMPOSIUM NSW reforms for outcomes SPONSOR 	SYMPOSIUM Family law and financial matters	SYMPOSIUM What matters in Australian family life, education and support?	SYMPOSIUM Children's Ground: Evidencing system and service reform led by First Nations families	SYMPOSIUM Cultural diversity matters: Optimising outcomes for migrant and refugee families SPONSOR 	SYMPOSIUM Elder abuse	Program evaluation snapshots
1130	From being 'at risk' to being 'a risk': Journeys into parenthood among disadvantaged young mothers Megan Blaxland	An overview of reforms for outcomes in NSW The Hon. Pru Goward MP	Australian family property law: 'Just and equitable' outcomes? Belinda Fehlberg, Lisa Sarmas	Couple relationship education in Australia: Going, going, gone Bruce Smyth	Evidencing systems reform with families Jen Lorains, Felicity Hayes, Veronica Turner, Lorraine Gorey	Innovative service responses for migrant and refugee children and families Stephen O'Neill Settlement Services International	Developing an Australian definition of abuse of older people Rachel Carson, Briony Dow, Luke Gahan, Lixia Qu	Improved outcomes for families and children by linking research to practice - the final stage of the implementation of Wanslea's Practice Framework Pauline Dixon
1150	Choosing supplementary education: Variables that influence parents to enrol their Australian school-age children into academic programs outside of school time Mariko Francis	Their futures matter Tahn O'Brien	Effective community based, court ordered, lawyer assisted property conciliation Andrew Bickerdike	Parenting education in Australia: A rapid evidence assessment update Michelle Macvean		'Hub' approaches to achieving resilience in migrant and refugee families Kenny Duke ACCESS Community Services	Estimating the extent of elder abuse using existing national surveys Ilan Katz	Empowering parents/empowering communities: The benefits and challenges of delivering parenting programs in community languages Colleen Turner
1210	Driving quality: A case study of raising the quality of early childhood services in the Northern Territory using the values chain Susan Edwards	The NSW Practice Framework Kate Alexander	Small claims, large battles: Rebuilding financial security for vulnerable women in the family law system Tania Clarke	Preventing and responding to conflict and violence: A family life education perspective Daryl Higgins	What does an authentic approach to 'families leading the way' really look like? Mel Kean, Felicity Hayes, Veronica Turner, Lorraine Gorey	Understanding the barriers to migrant women's economic and social participation Wendy Cisar Spectrum	Respecting elders: A preventative and treatment strategy for elder abuse Jenni Dickson	Understanding our impact: RAV's journey towards outcomes-focused thinking Sandra Opoku Data exchange: Innovative outcomes reporting Robert Stedman
1230		A commissioning for better outcome approach Deidre Mulkerin	Have the financial consequences of relationship separation changed for older Australians? A comparison of two cohorts Lixia Qu, Matthew Gray, David Stanton, David de Vaus Discussant Ruth Weston	Discussant Denise Lacey		Ageing in refugee and migrant communities Despina Haralambopoulos MiCare	Discussant Kay Patterson	Watch This Space: An innovative approach to educating teachers about young carers Zoi Triandafilidis, Daniel Glaubert Evaluation of an early parenting program for young parents (to 25 years) Cecily Strange Models of belonging: Intergenerational care for families Jennifer Cartmel Family 100 WA Research Project: Understanding the lived experience of entrenched disadvantage Susan Young

1250 Session reflections

1300 Lunchtime presentations

Stories from the Australian Census Longitudinal Dataset Australian Bureau of Statistics, Australian Institute of Family Studies, Learning Sciences Institute of Australia (ACU), and the Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research (ANU) Room 103

Translating practice knowledge and expertise into qualifications for the family and community workforce Jennifer St George, The University of Newcastle Room 104

1300 Lunch: poster displays and exhibition

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY 25 JULY (continued)

WEDNESDAY 25 JULY (continued)

1400	Breakout session 9	Breakout session 10	Breakout session 11	Breakout session 12	Breakout session 13	Breakout session 14	Breakout session 15	Breakout session 16
	Room 101	Room 105/106	Room 102	Room 104	Room 103	Room 107	Room 108	Room 110
	Family law and post separation	SYMPOSIUM The National Workforce Centre for Child Mental Health: Improving the lives of infants, children and families	Out-of-home care	SYMPOSIUM Grandparents who care full-time for their grandchildren	SYMPOSIUM The Transition and Wellbeing Research Programme SPONSOR  Australian Government Department of Veterans' Affairs	Family wellbeing	SYMPOSIUM What matters most to parents: The evidence, opportunities, and policy implications	Service design snapshots
1400	'I'm at a crossroads': Supporting families through the Family Law System with the Family Safety Navigation Model Marie Yorston	Introducing the National Workforce Centre for Child Mental Health Brad Morgan Diagnosis in child mental health: Exploring the benefits, risks and alternatives Rhys Price-Robertson	Service use and support for children in OOHC and their carers Ilan Katz	Developing a research agenda with grandparent carers: Identifying a need, stakeholders, and getting the question right Denise Gray	Overview of the Transition and Wellbeing Programme Miranda Van Hooff, Stephanie Hodson	'Weighing up the odds': Young men, sports and betting Rebecca Jenkinson	Parenting today in Victoria: What parents say about their parenting experience and the implications for policy Jan Matthews, Catherine Wade	Using public data in designing an early childhood health service: A South Australian model Alice Steeb Measuring effectiveness in a multi-stream service delivery organisation: A reflection on processes, outcomes, and strengths-based failures! Robyn Parker, Matt Stubbs
1420	What works for separated parents and caregivers making parenting arrangements in New Zealand Megan Gollop	Trauma informed care: why bother? How does it work and does it help? Nicola Palfrey	Aboriginal infant removals: Trends, disparities and challenges Melissa O'Donnell, Stephanie Taplin, Rhonda Marriott	Informing future policy and service development for grandparent carers: Accessibility, gaps and needs Mark Liddiard	From military service to civilian life: The impact of transition on ADF servicemen and servicewomen Miranda Van Hooff	Volunteer Family Connect: Strengthening family relationships and wellbeing through social connection Kelly Baird, Jayne Meyer Tucker, Hannah Francis	Parenting trends in a digital age: A window into what matters to parents Julie Green, Derek McCormack	Supporting newly arrived families through flexible and tailored settlement service delivery: The National Settlement Services Outcomes Standards Nicholas Tebbey Promoting wellbeing and resilience in veterans and military families Marissa Dickins
1440	The opportunity and challenge of interdisciplinary collaborative process as a dispute resolution process for families Jackie Jones, David Roberts	National to local: Implementation to support practice Helen Francis	Lifelong connections for children in permanent care: What supports families to facilitate positive birth family contact? Susan Collings, Amy Conley Wright	Western Australian grandcarer families: State-wide survey, diverse grandcarers and leadership camps David Coall, Myra Taylor, Ruth Marquis, Francesca Robertson, Michelle Jenkins	Exploring the impact of deployment to a combat zone: The impact of combat study Ellie Lawrence-Wood, Jess Styles	The importance of student and parent voice in driving school improvement: The evidence from New South Wales Ian McCarthy	Perceptions of parenting: Implications for policy and practice Annette Michaux	Realising the potential of co-design: Imagining a future where families' needs drive service development Sue Leahy Responding to the needs of families: Outreach in the Tasmanian early years' service system Kim Jose Repairing and rebuilding relationships after family violence Jeanette Miller Australian outcomes of open adoption study Susan Tregeagle
1500		The 'what' and the 'how': Using educational design and knowledge translation to support evidence-informed practice Derek McCormack	Well-being and education for children in out of home care Michelle Townsend		Impact of transition from military to civilian life on families Diana Smart, Loretta Poerio	The child safe journey: The role of organisations and families in upholding children's rights Megan Mitchell	Discussant Kim Little
1520	Session reflections
1530	Afternoon tea
1545	PANEL Can we make the economy work better for families?
	Panelists: Professor Janeen Baxter, Professor Lyn Craig, Dr Richard Denniss, Dr John Hewson AM Facilitator: Virginia Trioli Room 105/106
1730-1930	Welcome Reception featuring jazz band 'After Hours'

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

THURSDAY 26 JULY

0800 Registration opens

0900 PLENARY SESSION Room 105/106

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Protecting children: Time for a new story? Professor Brigid Featherstone, University of Huddersfield, UK

1000 Morning tea

1030 Breakout session 17 Breakout session 18 Breakout session 19 Breakout session 20 Breakout session 21 Breakout session 22 Breakout session 23 Breakout session 24

Room 108 Room 101 Room 103 Room 102 Room 104 Room 107 Room 105/106 Room 110

	Breakout session 17	Breakout session 18	Breakout session 19	Breakout session 20	Breakout session 21	Breakout session 22	Breakout session 23	Breakout session 24
	SYMPOSIUM Mental health from pre-conception to early adolescence	Foster and kinship care	SYMPOSIUM 'New age' families: Negotiating new roles, relationships and opportunities for 'modern families' - and avoiding the pitfalls - in an older Australia SPONSOR 	Children and family violence	SYMPOSIUM Strong families, safe children: Directions in Victorian child and family services SPONSOR 	SYMPOSIUM What really matters? Rethinking how we value Australia's children	SYMPOSIUM Recognising and facilitating multiple and differing relationship priorities after separation	Program evaluation snapshots
1030	Understanding the intergenerational transmission of mental health problems Elizabeth Spry	A hidden group of young kinship carers: The young and 'care-full' research project Meredith Kiraly	Ageing, older people and ageism: Challenging assumptions about ageing and the role of older people in families and communities Marlene Krasovistky	Including children's voices in an anti-violence campaign Andrew Johnson	Re-imagining the boundaries Kym Peake	Children's rights and needs in an adult world Linda Savage	How parents use 'the best interests of the child' to define and negotiate a 'good' post-separation relationship Kristin Natalier, Priscilla Dunk-West	The Expert Panel project: reflections and results from a national workforce capacity building initiative Sharnee Moore
1050	Understanding mental health as children start school Meredith O'Connor	Caring about carers: Findings from a national survey of foster and relative/kinship carers Lixia Qu	Meet the grandparents, 2.0 Duncan Young	Children living with domestic and family violence: A differential response through multi-agency collaboration Cathy Humphreys	Child and family services reforms in Victoria Argiri Alisandratos	National policy on child safety and wellbeing: Where have we been? Where should we be going? Brian Babington	Children's experiences of 'home' after parental separation Belinda Fehlberg, Bruce Smyth	Evaluation of a collective impact family violence prevention initiative: Learnings from the first two years Allison Byrnes
1110	Mental health competence at age 11 and its association with health behaviour at age 14: Findings from the UK Millennium Cohort Study Steven Hope	Family violence in kinship care in Victoria Rachel Breman, Ann MacRae	On for young and old Renata Singer	Addressing filicide in Australia: Research and action Thea Brown	Transitioning Aboriginal children to Aboriginal community controlled organisations Raylene Harradine, Muriel Bamblett, Karen Heap, Beth Allen	Essentials for childhood: Where prevention of child abuse is an essential element Daryl Higgins	What do we stand to gain by recognising post-separation losses? Vivienne Elizabeth	Findings from the evaluation of the multi-agency investigation and support team (WA) James Herbert
1130	Emotional behaviour difficulties across childhood and mental health service use: Findings from a longitudinal Australian population based study Melissa Mulraney	kContact: Improving contact between children in OOHC and their parents: Carers' account of contact Stephanie Taplin	Is that ageist? Emma Dawson	Building our understandings of children's lived experiences of domestic and family violence Debbie Noble-Carr, Morag McArthur, Tim Moore	Beyond 18: Young people leaving care outcomes study Stewart Muir, Meredith Jones, Eleanor Williams		The discursive power of the law: Its influence on professional and litigant decision-making and post-separation parenting arrangements in family law Zoe Rathus	Principles before rules: Child-centred, family-focused and practitioner-led evaluation in child protection Stefan Kmit
							Discussant Lawrie Moloney	Using evidence to find out what matters to families so that we can ensure our services are responsive to client needs Shae Johnson, Beth McCann
								Reconnecting mothers and children after violence (RECOVER): The Australian child-parent psychotherapy pilot Leesa Hooker
								Not just another outcomes framework: Collaborating to hold government to account for WA's children and young people Sarah Murthy
								DOMINO Dataset Tim Reddel

1150 Session reflections

1200 Lunchtime presentations

What matters to parents with problematic substance use and their children? Anne Tidyman, Odyssey House Room 103
Who's got the box lid? Putting the puzzle of independent oversight together to effectively monitor services for children and young people Trish Heath, WA Commissioner for Children and Young People Room 104

1200 Lunch: poster displays and exhibition

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

THURSDAY 26 JULY (continued)

THURSDAY 26 JULY (continued)

1300	Breakout session 25	Breakout session 26	Breakout session 27	Breakout session 28	Breakout session 29	Breakout session 30	Breakout session 31	Breakout session 32
	Room 108	Room 102	Room 101	Room 103	Room 105/106	Room 104	Room 107	Room 110
	Families and the economy	Carers	Housing and living arrangements	SYMPOSIUM Interrupting disadvantage and creating cycles of opportunity: How co-design and evidence inform innovation SPONSOR 	Leaving care	Family law processes within the courts	Young people and wellbeing	WORKSHOP National child and family wellbeing targets – being accountable for what matters for children and families SPONSOR
1300	Fifty years of changing families: Implications for income support Matthew Gray	Future matters: Ageing parent carers, adult siblings and succession planning Zoi Triandafilidis, Tom Hinton, Lorraine Villaret, Freya Saich, Sarah Judd-Lam	My home is where my family lives: The changing nature of children's housing in the 21st century Wendy Stone	Practical explorations in breaking cycles of disadvantage in Australia Presenters Vita Maiorano Lauren Weinstein Chris Vanstone Alfie Bamblett Jade Carey Nicole Seddon	Storying relationships and self: How family, friends, and caseworkers matter in out-of-home care kylie valentine	How de facto do you need to be? Analysing the Family Court's determinations on whether a relationship is 'de facto' under the Family Law Act Michelle Fernando	A multi-level public health approach to empower parents for youth mental health Marie Yap	Measurement and accountability for child wellbeing outcomes in Australia: Preliminary issues paper for improving indicators of child wellbeing in Australia Peter Walsh
1320	The effect of changing financial incentives on repartnering Hayley Fisher	The grandparenting paradox: Can you have too much of a good thing? David Coall, Sonja Hilbrand, Myra Taylor, Ruth Marquis, Jenni Werner, Denis Gerstorf, Ralph Hertwig	Home is where the heart is Philippa Forge		A case study of policy failure: Young people transitioning from out of home care in Victoria Phillip Mendes	Exploring gendered trauma within family law Rachael Fernald	The role of families in youth mental healthcare: Findings from the headspace evaluation Fiona Hilferty, Ilan Katz	Panelists: Louise York Australian Institute of Health and Welfare Kate Sollis Australian Research Alliance for Children and Youth (ARACY)
1340	The impact of non-standard employment on relationship stability: A comparison of cohabiting unions and marriages Inga Lass	What matters most to families of older people in consumer directed care: Literature review Anne Muldowney	Living the high life? Parents' experiences of raising children in new high density housing developments in Melbourne Fiona Andrews, Elyse Warner, Belinda Robson		Simple social welfare reform to foster social and economic wellbeing for the most vulnerable Paul McDonald	Self-representation in family law matters where there are allegations of violence from the perspectives of Independent Children's Lawyers Miranda Kaye	Children's residence after separation and parents' reports of their child's progress at school: Do children's living arrangements matter? Alex Masardo	Stella Conroy Families Australia Tahn O'Brien Their Futures Matter
1400	Policy versus economic impacts: The economic position of Australian single parents post the GFC Matthew Gray	Young carers: The influence of informal caring on cognitive and social outcomes Diana Warren	'Take it as it comes': How Australian families make the return to co-residence work Elyse Warner		When family history is more than a hobby: Improving the wellbeing of care leavers through genealogical research and narrative practice Cate O'Neill	Direct cross-examination in family law matters: A new approach? Rachel Carson	Examining effects of family factors on youth delinquency: Mediation of protective factors Xuexin Xu, Kala Ruby
1420	Session reflections
1430	Afternoon tea sponsored by Berry Street . Launch of Fairy godparents and fake kin – Kinship care research report, Meredith Kiraly				Launched by Victorian Children's Commissioner, Liana Buchanan and Cathy Humphreys
1500-1700	PANEL System reform: Is it dead?
	Panelists: Adjunct Professor Muriel Bamblett AM, Professor Brigid Featherstone, Commissioner Robert Fitzgerald AM, Dr Nicholas Gruen Facilitator: Madonna King Room 105/106

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

FRIDAY 27 JULY

FRIDAY 27 JULY

0800	Registration opens
0830	PLENARY 1 Room 106 Review of the family law system: Issues and opportunities Professor Helen Rhoades, Australian Law Reform Commission				PLENARY 2 Room 105 Nudges uncovered: Can behavioural insights contribute to our understanding of 'What matters most to families in the 21st century'? Dr David Halpern, Dr Nicholas Gruen, Sam Hannah-Rankin
0925	Session change over
0930	Breakout session 33 Room 104 Family law	Breakout session 34 Room 108 SYMPOSIUM Transforming policy reforms into practice in the statutory family: A case study of Victorian leaving care initiatives	Breakout session 35 Room 103 SYMPOSIUM Working together: Government, philanthropy and research: The early years initiative in Western Australia SPONSOR   	Breakout session 36 Room 101 SYMPOSIUM Fathers at work	Breakout session 37 Room 107 Young people and technology	Breakout session 38 Room 102 Child protection systems	Breakout session 39 Room 105 SYMPOSIUM PANEL 'Are we even studying families anymore?' How longitudinal studies can help us to understand contemporary families: What are the emerging opportunities and the challenges we face?	Breakout session 40 Room 106 WORKSHOP Reforming family violence service provision through co-production and recovery oriented service models SPONSORS
0930	The intersection of family violence and Family Dispute Resolution: Implications for practice Joe Harman	From funding success to finding your service users: Navigating the leaving care system to provide legal support to eligible young people Sandeep Varma	Research into policy David Ansell	Trends in fathers' working arrangements Jennifer Baxter	Out of the dark: Harnessing the views of young people to improve online safety Carol Ronken	Towards a comprehensive model of child protection system change Ilan Katz	Facilitator Kelly Hand Australian Institute of Family Studies	Presenters Karen Field Beth McCann iHeal team member
0950	What matters to families at FMC: Medium and longer term outcomes for Family Dispute Resolution clients Becky Batagol	Advantaged thinking in out-of-home care: Preparing young people for independence using a capabilities approach Marion Coddou	Government action Vicki Jack	The impact of change and stability in fathers' work-family conflict on children's mental health Liana Leach	LSAC goes online: Improving engagement with young people through digital channels Katrina Martin	Empowering families through greater transparency, accountability and fairness in child protection proceedings: A 21st century approach to child protection litigation? Nigel Miller	Panelists Liz Allen Australian National University Tim Reddel Department of Social Services Diana Warren Australian Institute of Family Studies	Chaka Johnson iHeal Recovery support workers Amuna Abdella iHeal case co-ordinator
1010	Rethinking confidentiality, the wicked problem and the absent moral debate: Lessons from FRCs, the Canadian experience, restorative and innovative justice Ian Connop	Raising expectations: Improving educational outcomes for young people leaving care Joanna Humphries Better futures: Stronger and streamlined leaving care practice using a capabilities approach Joe Howie	Business and philanthropy Hayley Panetta	Job quality, change and stability in work-family conflict and fathers' mental health Amanda Cooklin	What's in a game? Megan Carroll	Working with families: Three practice-based approaches for child protection Jack Davenport	Mark Wooden Household, Income and Labour Dynamics in Australia (HILDA) Survey, University of Melbourne
1030	Findings from the children and young people in separated families study Rachel Carson	Brighter futures: The transformative power of co-design and collective impact Meg Beilken, Laura Johns Discussant Phillip Mendes		The father effect: Advancing men taking parental leave in Australia Emma Walsh	Parenting in the digital age: Lessons from Australian families Bjorn Nansen	Cross-agency responses to the investigation of severe child abuse: A national comparison James Herbert
1050	Session reflections
1100	Morning tea

Friday continued over

BREAKOUT SESSION THEMES

- Children & young people
- Family wellbeing & parenting
- Service systems
- Developments in policy
- Family violence & abuse
- Program innovation & evaluations
- Out-of-home care
- Families & the family law system

AIFS 2018 CONFERENCE PROGRAM

FRIDAY 27 JULY (continued)

FRIDAY 27 JULY (continued)

1115	Breakout session 41	Breakout session 42	Breakout session 43	Breakout session 44	Breakout session 45	Breakout session 46	Breakout session 47	Breakout session 48
	Room 105	Room 101	Room 102	Room 106	Room 107	Room 103	Room 104	Room 108
	SYMPOSIUM Using people-centred evidence to shape policy strategy and implementation: New approaches to data analysis and stakeholder co-design from the Department of Social Services SPONSOR Australian Government Department of Social Services	SYMPOSIUM Harnessing workhorses or herding cats? Collaborating across the Relationships Australia Federation to research what matters most to families	SYMPOSIUM Parents as partners in place based initiatives	Policy considerations	Child development	SYMPOSIUM Young people from migrant and refugee backgrounds in Australia: Facilitating their active citizenship	SYMPOSIUM Domestic, family and sexual violence in the family law system: Reflections and future directions CONVENED BY AUSTRALIA'S NATIONAL RESEARCH ORGANISATION FOR WOMEN'S SAFETY (ANROWS)	SYMPOSIUM Research with children and young people
1115	Access to opportunity Tim Reddel	How do we measure the success of Family Dispute Resolution (FDR) in parenting matters? Preliminary findings from Relationships Australia's FDR Outcomes Study Aditi Lohan, Jelena Milic	The First 1,000 Days initiative, Gippsland Jane Anderson	Implementing no jab, no pay Ilan Katz	Stability and change in dietary scores and patterns across six waves of the Longitudinal Study of Australian Children Constantine Gasser	Australia's first multicultural youth census: Findings from the MY Australia ARC Linkage project Rimi Khan	Facilitator Heather Nancarrow CEO, ANROWS National Domestic and Family Violence Bench Book Heather Douglas	Transitioning to life after out-of-home care: The Beyond 18 study Jade Purtell, Stewart Muir
1135	Family functioning and children's outcomes Tim Crosier, Grey Robertson	Thirty years of community sector property Family Dispute Resolution: A mature, safe, effective, efficient and evidence-based service Genevieve Heard	Child and family centres: Parents as partners in co-design and delivery of services M'Lynda Stubbs	Targeting children: Restricting gambling promotions by adapting lessons from tobacco, alcohol and food Cassandra de Lacy-Vawdon	Developmental vulnerabilities in children of criminally convicted parents Megan Bell	English language proficiency among humanitarian youth: A longitudinal study Pilar Rioseco	Representation in family law proceedings involving family violence Jane Wangmann	Does payment influence children's participation in research? Results from the MESSI study Stephanie Taplin
1155	Place-based approaches to disadvantage Phil Brown	How effective is routine couple counselling? An Australian effectiveness study Jemima Petch	Go Goldfields: Parents as active governance partners - what does it take? Sandra Hamilton	The 2018 ARACY Report Card: The wellbeing of young Australians Kate Sollis	Investing in family strengths-based programs to keep vulnerable families together Elizabeth Whittaker	Refugee young people and education, training and employment Helena DeAnstiss	Trends in service integration to address family violence Antonia Quadara	Children participating in research: Experiencing from the Children and Young People in Separated Families Study Rachel Carson
1215	Challenges, opportunities and implications: Early lessons from Try, Test and Learn investments Tim Reddel	Relationships Australia's Elder Relationship Services trial Paula Mance Discussant Jamie Lee	Discussant Rowena Butler	Level of marriage preparedness of couples in Singapore Yolanda Chin, Teh Yi Ying	The influence of parental time investments on children's cognitive and socioemotional outcomes at school entry Angela Gialamas, Dandara Haag, Murthy Mittinty, John Lynch	Panelist Mohammad Javir Discussant Nadine Liddy	The impact of domestic violence on parenting Cathy Humphreys	Towards protective participation: Improving children's safety through their meaningful engagement in institutional contexts Tim Moore
1235	Session reflections
1245	Lunch: poster displays and exhibition
1245	Lunchtime presentations
	How can research be made relevant? Rebecca Armstrong , Australian Institute of Family Studies; Dr Tim Reddel , Department of Social Services; Sue West , Murdoch Children's Research Institute; Vita Maiorano , Australian Centre for Social Innovation Room 103 Families of tomorrow: Readyng services for the future Tamara White , WA Commissioner for Children and Young People Room 104
1345	PANEL: Is It time for a new conversation about 'family'?
	Panelists: Benjamin Law, Romlie Mokak, Jonathan Nicholas, Jamila Rizvi, Nora Spinks Facilitator: Madonna King Room 105/106
1515	Conference reflections
1530	End of conference							